1. Shef Edwards, [redacted] and I met with General Cabell to discuss the need of the Office of Security for engineering assistance in their counter audiosurveillance program. General Cabell approved in principle of negotiating a contract with [redacted]

[redacted] but insisted that we look to the Technical Services Staff for engineering advice and assistance internally and that if a contract with [redacted] were needed the Technical Services Staff should monitor it. I have agreed to get together with Shef and [redacted]

25X1A9a [redacted] to pursue the matter further.

2. I presented Jim Garrison with the feasibility study on his Supply Division and asked him to read it before turning it over to anyone else. I also asked that he personally spend some time with Messrs. [redacted] and that he accompany Al [redacted] to [redacted] to look at the RMAC machine. I also told him of [redacted] 25X1A
